Dear Josh,

I am writing to repeat my thanks, a little more formally, for the concert on Wednesday - as I said to you, a 3-day festival of music in 2½ hrs (I understand there were more pieces and songs that had to be left out at the last moment.)

What you and your team gave us was an enormous range of music and musicians, using the same facilities and performing to the same audience on the same occasion. I'm sure that sent an important message about the centrality of music in life and at Holland Park.

I know something of the hard work required to put on such an event, and would be grateful if you could pass on my appreciation to all those concerned. I shall not attempt the fine gradations of thanks in your programme! - but I know that nothing would have happened without your vision, commitment and energy.

My particular Thanks to you. M. A. Pringle
